Training Justification Narrative:

Mr. Johnson came into the American Job Center N.W. primarily for training services. His employment history has not been in the Information and Technology; but he wishes to pursue the IT career, and get skills to the Information Technology field. After researching DOES training vendors and training options he would like to attend the Constituent Services Worldwide (CSW). The courses he is interested in taking are the CompTIA A+ Certification. Mr. Johnson has a GED Diploma; customer passed the CASAS test to be able to take the training. He has expressed an interest in attending the Constituent Services Worldwide (CSW). As his case manager, I believe he has both the capacity and competency to successfully complete this program and obtain the subsequent certification. Based on information obtained from Mr. Johnson during counseling sessions, he has no barriers that would prevent his from successfully completing training. I therefore recommend that Mr. Johnson be allowed to attend training at the Constituent Services Worldwide (CSW).
